ORIENTATION

All incoming exchange students are required to attend the SYSBS orientation. This will be a morning or day session wherein you will be provided a great deal of information about Sun Yat-sen Business School that you cannot afford to miss. Besides academic information relating to the various disciplines of the school, and technology information, you will receive information about the student associations, the mentor program and the buddy program. The new students will have an opportunity to meet their classmates, the faculty, tour the facilities and have their questions answered.

BUDDY PROGRAM

Each semester we recruit students in our school to act as buddies for exchange students. Soon after we receive the application we will send information about the Buddy to the university coordinator. The Buddies have good command of English as well as a wide knowledge of the city and university which makes them very good volunteers. They are ready to help the students settle into life and study at Sun Yat-sen University.

TUITION FEE

The tuition fee is waived for the exchange students according to the Student Exchange Agreement.

*For the self-financed students, please see the SYSBS Fee-paying Free Mover Policy for details:
